POLES COME DOWN

MAIN STREET NOT ONLY ONE TO BE CLEARED OF WIRES.

BUILDING FOR FUTURE

Underground Conduits Could Accommodate 6,400 Telephones—The Improvements Better Service.

Another step toward the betterment of its service, the safety of the city in case of fires or storms and the beautification of the streets of Maryville is being taken by the Hanamo Telephone company this summer. It is its third piece of work in the plan which will eventually put all the wires in the fire district underground and remove most of the poles and wires from the main streets.

The Hanamo company began this work in the spring of 1909 when four underground main conduits were laid in the alley from its office to the intersection of the alleys back of the old Oak saloon. In October 1911 the work was continued by laying four main conduits from the office south nearly to Second street and two from there to the other side of First street. The present piece of work extends from the former stopping place back of the Oak to a point half way between Sixth and Seventh streets, making six blocks of underground main cables with laterals or branches extending from them.

To Remove Many Poles and Wires

But two main conduits are being laid in the present piece of work. From the stopping point between Sixth and Seventh streets the wires will be carried on poles to Ninth street. Then they will again be extended under ground east to the other side of Main street, where they will join the present aerial cable that goes north from the viaduct. An underground branch of the conduit will also extend east to Main street in the alley between the Curfman lumber yard and L. R. Holt's implement store.

This work is being done, Manager Harry Todd said today, to complete the promise made to the Commercial club and the street committee of the city council, when the White Way was installed, that the telephone company would take its wires and poles from Main street as far north as Sixth street. Mr. Todd said, however, that the company was going further and take down all the poles and wires as far north as the viaduct at Ninth street

The work is requiring the rebuilding of many of the branch lines. In addition to the removal of the Main street lines, twenty wires will be taken off Sixth street for a distance of three blocks east from Main, twenty wires will be taken off Market street between Sixth and Seventh and ten wires will be taken off Seventh street from Main street to the property of W. W. Glass, a little more than a block east. These lines will be replaced by cables and wires stretched through alleys and back lots.

Will Aid in Fighting Fires.

Mr. Todd said this morning that the company has two purposes in doing this work: The first is to give better service by removing the wires from danger of fire and storm, and second, to do a little at a time work that undoubtedly would be forced on the company in later years and thus avoid the large expense all at once. Incidentally, the removal of wires from the fire district is a great aid to the firemen in fighting a blaze, and the improvement in the looks of the streets where wires and poles are being taken down is in itself an advantage to the city.

G. R. Eaton, who has been employed by the Hanamo company for several years to superintend all construction work, has surveyed and engineered the present improvements. The laying of the conduits will be finished today, and by the end of the week the concrete will be poured and the streets repaired. Then the work of installing the 5,000 feet of cable will begin.

The conduits are similar to those laid in previous years. They are made of a compressed wood fibre and treated so as to be similar to creosote. They are laid in five feet lengths and concrete is poured around them to strengthen them and protect them from future excavations. At distances of not more than a block apart manholes are made. These are poured of solid concrete, and Mr. Todd said that all the iron covers were manufactured here in Maryville. The foundry also furnishes Shenandoah and Corning, Ia., with manhole covers.

Could Accommodate 6,400 Telephones.

All this work is as lasting as can be made. The cables are pulled through the conduits and easily repaired. The largest cable the conduits will carry is a 400-pair wire cable. With individual phone service such a cable will accommodate 400 telephones, but with the limit of four telephones on a wire 1,600 instruments can be accommodated. Thus the downtown conduits have an ultimate capacity for 6,400 telephones and the others for 3,200.

At present, however, only one 300-pair wire cable is being used downtown, and a 150-pair wire cable extends from it. The other conduits are to be used in case a section of new cable is needed to replace a damaged one, or for new ones as the service increases. The present conduits are large enough to accommodate the increase of service for many years.

"SAVE THE STRAW," SAYS MAYES.

Six Things That Tend to Protect the Producer From Becoming a Buying Consumer.

"Save the Straw," is the message sent out by Jewell Mayes, secretary of the state board of agriculture, today to the farmers of Missouri. He reports that corn conditions are much improved, and says:

"It seems that hay has reached as high a figure at this period as it has sold for at this season for years, and there are those who are so aggressive as to predict that unless we have abundance of rains for fall pasture that within the next eight months the hay market may attack the record price. If so, this will be good for the farmer who follows the doubtful practice of selling hay.

"However, the farmer who raises or feeds live stock (and such an one is so often the best farmer) will hardly be found with much hay to sell, for in a short year along any line he will likely be found to be the buyer, except for a possible six reasons.

"The six reasons referred to as tending to protect the producer from becoming a consumer who buys feed are (1st) blue grass pasture, in which Missouri leads the world; (2nd) alfalfa growing, in which this state is beginning to take increased interest, and for which our department is planning to make an aggressive campaign; (3rd) the silo, needed on every farm handling live stock; (4th) millet, and other catch crops; (5th) saving of the wheat and oats straw; (6th) the sixth is a composite why—combining the 3rd and 5th reasons—the properly balanced feeding of corn silage and wheat straw, insuring a separate profit for both the corn and the grain where otherwise this year's grain crop might have figured a loss.

"If you have not threshed the grain crop, do not delay stacking. Stacking wheat extends the time of marketing, and is regarded by many as a wise way to hold grain for a limited time. Skilled stackers are not plentiful—and if you are in doubt use a tarpaulin or other covering for stacks. Do not thresh until the heating period is past. By stacking you guard against a probable (or possible) wet period.

"Will it not pay any and every farmer to save his straw? Stack it to turn water; some cover the top of straw stacks with hay or other material in case they cannot begin baling immediately. Running day and night in baling straw has often been found a good investment as insurance against a wet season. The cyclone stacker should not be wholly depended on to handle the straw—it will pay to put men on the straw stack to insure keeping the middle well filled.

"In this day of the ugliest and most to be encouraged farm implement—the manure spreader—all wheat, oats and rye straw should be saved for feed or bedding. Do not haul away or ship your straw, except as a last resort.

"There is one farmer, perhaps, who may merit advance forgiveness for selling his straw—the man who cashes his straw pile for money to buy ground limestone by the car to spread on his land where sweetening of soil is needed.

"Save the straw. Do not burn the stacks, for that is willful waste. Some are using the straw spreader with success. You can certainly feed your straw to positive profit, and if you care to sell it you will be able to get rid of it, especially if you are near the railroad. Let not the charge be ever again made against the Missouri farmer that he willfully wastes any portion of his crops."

SOX TAKE THIRD GAME 4-3.

Adams' Home Run With Two Men On Bases Couldn't Win For The Cubs.

The Sox defeated the Cubs in the third game of the series at the Normal school yesterday afternoon by a 4-3 score.

This is the second victory which the Sox have won, while the Cubs have defeated the Sox once. The game yesterday was the most closely contested one of the three. Its feature was Captain Adams' home run in the sixth inning, when two men were on bases.

Neither team scored in the first two innings, but the Sox by opportune hitting got one score in the third. No scores were made in the fourth, but the Sox got one score in each of the fifth and the sixth innings. Adams then came to bat with two men on bases and lifted the ball clear over the railroad track, giving his side three scores, and tying the game 3-3. Two hits by Bird and Wogan in the seventh gave the Sox the winning score.

The next game will be played on Friday afternoon.

The game by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	R	H	E
Sox	0	0	1	0	1	1	1	4	5	6
Cubs	0	0	0	0	0	3	0	3	6	6

Good Crop.

The Hopkins Journal says threshing is now in full blast and wheat and oats are both running out better than many first expected, oats going from 30 to 60 bushels and wheat from 10 to 42 bushels to the acre. George Andrews threshed a ten acre patch of wheat last week that averaged 42 bushels. Corn is looking fine and altogether this country seems to be signally blessed this year with good crops.

Bond Issue for Hopkins.

According to a communication in the Hopkins Journal this week, Wm. Wells of that township is advocating a good roads bond issue of $20,000 for bridges and roads.

J. L. JONES DEAD

RETIRED MINISTER CAME TO NODAWAY WHEN A BOY.

HAD BEEN ILL 2 YEAR

Was Pastor of Several Churches in Different Towns of the County—Leaves Many Relatives.

The Rev. J. L. Jones died last night at 9:30 at the family home, 625 West First street. Mr. Jones had been in failing health for the past two years, and since November had been confined to his bed. His malady caused him acute suffering, and the last two months he was in a precarious state, with no apparent hopes of recovery.

The funeral services will be held at 2.30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the First Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Lewis M. Hale. The interment will be made in Miriam cemetery.

Mr. Jones was one of the best known men of the county and the son of Alfred Jones, one of the early pioneers of Nodaway. He was born in Buchanan county, Missouri, May 29, 1851.

When a very small boy he came with his parents to this county, and the family settled on a farm south of Maryville, in the White Cloud district. Mr. Jones spent his early life in farming, and later studied for the ministry, taking up an active pastorate in 1894. He was pastor at several of the district churches and then went to Texas, where he made his home for a time. He then returned to Nodaway and was pastor of the Hopkins Baptist church for two years, and then went to Clearmont, where he was pastor for several years. In 1909 he returned to his farm in White Cloud, living there until a few years ago, when he took up his residence in Maryville.

Mr. Jones was married March 9, 1871, to Miss Mary A. Toel, the daughter of the late Henry Toel of Maryville, who, with six children, survive. The children are Mrs. George Greeson of Graham, Oliver Jones of Long Beach, Cal.; Raymond and Alfred Jones, living south of the city; Loren Jones of Knowlton, Mont., and Miss Marie Jones, a member of the Maryville Conservatory faculty. He also leaves one brother, Will R. Jones of Warrensburg, Mo., and a sister, Mrs. John Busby of this city.

Among the out-of-town relatives of Mrs. Jones, who will be in Maryville to attend the funeral are her mother, Mrs. Margaret Toel of Des Moines, and her sister, Mrs. Sophia Jones of Enid, Okla., who came several weeks ago on account of the serious condition of Mr. Jones; Mr. and Mrs George Toel of St. Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. George Lorance of Des Moines, Ia., and Henry Toel of Conception, who will arrive in Maryville Friday.

THE AUTOMOBILE'S INFLUENCE.

Nodaway's Large Number of Cars is Affecting Written Language, as May Be Seen From News Item.

Nodaway county has so many automobiles—the official count July 1 was 952, and probably would be more than 1,000 now—that the written language of the people is being affected by them. At least it would seem so from a news item sent in by one of our correspondents.

This correspondent is so used to writing about motoring parties, motor accidents and the purchase of new motors, that the idea of traveling in any other way seems strange, so he writes:

Abner and Lafe Watson motored to Elmo with their horse and buggy Saturday to attend the Chautauqua.

A LITTLE FLING AT MARYVILLE.

How W. F. Bradley, Preacher, Stopped Sunday Baseball in Lock Springs, Mo.

This weeks Pattonsburg Call, in an editorial headed Sunday Baseball vs. Sunday School, tells of the novel and amusing way in which W. F. Bradley, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Lock Springs, Mo., went to work and succeeded in stopping Sunday baseball in that town. The editorial, which takes its little fling at Maryville, follows:

"Hello, Lock Springs? This is Maryville's captain talking; we would like a game with you next Sunday."

"Sorry, old chap, but Lock Springs doesn't play Sunday baseball now; some other day."

The amazement of Maryville's captain might not have been so great had he been acquainted with a certain young pastor, W. F. Bradley.

Bradley; now second-termer as Missouri's Quiet-Hour superintendent, got his theology at Missouri Valley College, where as a by-product of much service since, he has learned baseball.

Undoubtedly he was a sturdy player, and scored many hits for the glory of M. V. C.. No matter! There was one aspect of the great game which he did not learn until he left the campus and began to preach.

Then it was that baseball to Bradlay, '06, was found to be much different to W. F. Bradley, Presbyterian pastor, who now saw the boys and young men flocking en masse on Sundays to the sunny ball diamond. No McCormick rake ever left more slender picking than was spared of men for the scanty Lord's Day worship. Baseball had become very real and difficult affairs to the young pastor. This new game required more headwork.

Now Rev. Mr. Bradley might have entered the sure retreat of the Sunday pulpit and preached and scolded blisteringly. What he did was to join the practice squad one day quite inadvertently. The fellows were not slow to respond to his unaffected comradeship, nor backward in appreciating the quality of his play. Before long he was reliance of the team! His pitching had made Lock Springs invincible.

Naturally, while the preacher seemed to enjoy the game immensely, the church session could hardly be asked to give him his Sundays off? So the team argued. Therefore the members, being good ballplayers, were good sportsmen, and, being that, they played fair with the pastor who proved himself the best man among them. Surely Mr. Bradley '06, never made a home run so worthy of record as this!

Needless to say, the change to the Saturday games has been only one result of the influence of the Christian leader upon the lives of the young men of his town. It is tribute to the effectual manliness of [Mis]souri's present day clergy. Bradley is [one] of whom Missouri [is] proud. In [this] accomplishment,

SAVE THE WATER

MANAGER DENNY WANTS TO INSURE FUTURE CONDITIONS.

NO DANGER AT PRESENT

Today He Asked That Sprinkling of Court Yard and Streets Be Stopped.

Manager L. A. Denny of the city water company cautions the people of Maryville against the waste of water. There is no danger of the supply giving out, he says, but he thinks that if the waste of water can be kept down from now on it will be a great help later in the summer.

The reservoir is full of water and is being kept full, but in the last few days the river has gone down. Yesterday the pumps took it down nearly two feet. Mr. Denny attributes the condition of the river to the work of the dredge boat near Hopkins.

This morning he asked W. A. Townsend, janitor of the court house, to stop the sprinkling of the lawn. Much water has been used there this summer in the effort to keep the new sod alive and let it get a firm root. Although a good lawn is an important thing for the court house square, it may have to be sacrificed this year to the more important needs of water for drinking and cleansing purposes.

The people of the city can aid very materially in the saving of water by not sprinkling their lawns and gardens.

Mr. Denny also asked today that the sprinkling of the streets downtown be stopped.

Mrs. Cockayne Entertains Club.

The Herron Homemaking Circle enjoyed one of its pleasant meetings Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harvey Cockane, northwest of the city. Favorite receipts and quotations were given with roll call responses and the afternoon devoted to needlework. A luncheon of ices and cakes were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Cecile Porterfield, and Miss Esther Tebow. Those present were Mrs. Virgil Guthrie, Mrs. S. E. Fisher, Mrs. Nellie Manley, Mrs. L. E. Rogers, Mrs. Frank Dempsey, Mrs. I. E. Tebow, Mrs. W. R. Taylor, Mrs. J. C. F. Taylor, Mrs. Ed. Vulgamott, Mrs. E. Neidel, Miss Mary Taylor, Miss Sarah Taylor, Miss Esther Neidel, Miss Nellie Fisher and Miss Grace Fisher. The next meeting will be on August 4, at the home of Mrs. Frank Dempsey.

Mrs. Housel Hurt.

Mrs. David Housel was severely hurt this morning when she slipped and fell, dislocating her hip. Mrs. Housel was at the home of Mrs. Noah Sipes, attending a quilting when the accident occurred. She was at once taken to her home, on North Market street, and a physician summoned. She was resting very well this afternoon.

Home to Texas.

Mrs. Stella Roderick of Palestine, Texas, who has been a guest at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. John Harrod East Third street, and Mr. and Mrs Fred Smith of East Second street, left for her home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. R. E. Hamilton and children returned Wednesday evening from a visit with relatives and friends in Kirksville.

As a farewell courtesy to her guest Miss Ida Landon of Silver City, Ia., who returned to her home this morning, Miss Susie Young gave a dinner last night with plates laid for Miss Landon, Mrs. Elmer Young, Miss Dora Allen, Miss Ethel Kidd, Miss Cuba Thompson and Miss Nellie Thompson.

Mrs. August King of Clyde came Wednesday evening for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Gross. She will return to her home Saturday and will be accompanied by her daughter, Angela King, who was operated upon at St. Francis hospital two weeks ago.

1915 Buick

Valve-in-Head
Motor Cars

The Car of Power, Speed Dependability and Durability

THE vital factor that has built up such an enormous demand for Buick cars is the Valve-in-Head motor, together with the dependability and durability of construction, comfort and great fuel economy.

Last season the output of 33,200 cars was completely sold out early in March. This endorsement of the Buick by the buying public has justified us this season in increasing our output and lowering our prices.

At the same time the 1915 Buick models actually offer greatly increased value. This reduction of price is possible because of the volume of business, the improved factory methods and because of the specialized labor and knowledge of the experts in this great factory.

THE BUICK PLANT IS THE LARGEST AUTOMOBILE FACTORY IN THE WORLD and here practically all parts for the Buick cars are made. This means economy of manufacture, unified effort and centralized engineering supervision.

Every man, every machine, every brain is attending solely to the work of making Buick cars.

The 1915 Buick has all the fundamental Buick principles with the addition of every improvement that has stood the Buick tests of worth. In fact, the three chassis, while the same in all essentials as last year, have been improved in every particular where improvement was possible. Many important innovations this season are added to increase the value of the cars:

The new Delco system of starting, lighting and ignition with an increased generating capacity of 35 per cent and automatic spark advance.

Tungsten steel valves.

Carburetor supplied by Stewart-Warner gravity feed vacuum system.

Controls conveniently located on instrument board in the cowl.

Non-skid tires on rear wheels.

Improved quality of leather for the upholstering and finer finish.

High grade stream line bodies, hoods and oval radiators.

These are but a few of the Buick improvements that will convince the buyer that, regardless of price, we are giving more value than ever before. We always have and still guarantee the Buick Valve-in-Head motor to develop more power than any other type of automobile motor of equal size, American or foreign make.

UNION OF THIEF CATCHERS

Sheriffs, Special Agents and Chiefs of Police Plan Merger.

Lincoln, July 23.—A union of three big criminal catching agencies was evolved at the meeting of the International Order of Sheriffs. It proposes a working understanding and co-operation between the sheriffs of the United States and Canada, the International Association of Railroad Special Agents and the International Police Chiefs' association.

The object of the union is to bring about a better co-operation among all peace officers. With the sheriff watching the county, the police chief the city and the railroad special agents the railroads, under this system of co-operation, it ought to be almost impossible for a criminal to get away, said J. W. Connolly, president of the special agents' organization, who conceived the plan for federation.

Rev. W. B. Christy of this city, will preach next Sunday evening at Hopkins.

Man Who Shot Anderson Surrenders.

St. Louis, July 23.—Edward Koenig, who for four days had been sought by the local police in connection with the shooting of Felix E. Anderson, assistant to President W. S. McChesney of the Terminal Railroad association, surrendered to the police. Koenig admitted he had shot Anderson and said he did so because "they had conspired to ruin and kill me." Asked to define "they," he answered incoherently.

POLES COME DOWN

MAIN STREET NOT ONLY ONE TO BE CLEARED OF WIRES.

BUILDING FOR FUTURE

Underground Conduits Could Accommodate 6,400 Telephones—The Improvements Better Service.

Another step toward the betterment of its service, the safety of the city in case of fires or storms and the beautification of the streets of Maryville is being taken by the Hanamo Telephone company this summer. It is its third piece of work in the plan which will eventually put all the wires in the fire district underground and remove most of the poles and wires from the main streets.

The Hanamo company began this work in the spring of 1909 when four underground main conduits were laid in the alley from its office to the intersection of the alleys back of the old Oak saloon. In October 1911 the work was continued by laying four main conduits from the office south nearly to Second street and two from there to the other side of First street. The present piece of work extends from the former stopping place back of the Oak to a point half way between Sixth and Seventh streets, making six blocks of underground main cables with laterals or branches extending from them.

To Remove Many Poles and Wires

But two main conduits are being laid in the present piece of work. From the stopping point between Sixth and Seventh streets the wires will be carried on poles to Ninth street. Then they will again be extended under ground east to the other side of Main street, where they will join the present aerial cable that goes north from the viaduct. An underground branch of the conduit will also extend east to Main street in the alley between the Curfman lumber yard and L. R. Holt's implement store.

This work is being done, Manager Harry Todd said today, to complete the promise made to the Commercial club and the street committee of the city council, when the White Way was installed, that the telephone company would take its wires and poles from Main street as far north as Sixth street. Mr. Todd said, however, that the company was going further and take down all the poles and wires as far north as the viaduct at Ninth street.

The work is requiring the rebuilding of many of the branch lines. In addition to the removal of the Main street lines, twenty wires will be taken off Sixth street for a distance of three blocks east from Main, twenty wires will be taken off Market street between Sixth and Seventh and ten wires will be taken off Seventh street from Main street to the property of W. W. Glass, a little more than a block east. These lines will be replaced by cables and wires stretched through alleys and back lots.

Will Aid in Fighting Fires.

Mr. Todd said this morning that the company has two purposes in doing this work: The first is to give better service by removing the wires from danger of fire and storm, and second, to do a little at a time work that undoubtedly would be forced on the company in later years and thus avoid the large expense all at once. Incidentally, the removal of wires from the fire district is a great aid to the firemen in fighting a blaze, and the improvement in the looks of the streets where wires and poles are being taken down is in itself an advantage to the city.

G. R. Eaton, who has been employed by the Hanamo company for several years to superintend all construction work, has surveyed and engineered the present improvements. The laying of the conduits will be finished today, and by the end of the week the concrete will be poured and the streets repaired. Then the work of installing the 5,000 feet of cable will begin.

The conduits are similar to those laid in previous years. They are made of a compressed wood fibre and treated so as to be similar to creosote. They are laid in five feet lengths and concrete is poured around them to strengthen them and protect them from future excavations. At distances of not more than a block apart manholes are made. These are poured of solid concrete, and Mr. Todd said that all the iron covers were manufactured here in Maryville. The foundry also furnishes Shenandoah and Corning, Ia., with manhole covers.

Could Accommodate 6,400 Telephones.

All this work is as lasting as can be made. The cables are pulled through the conduits and easily repaired. The largest cable the conduits will carry is a 400-pair wire cable. With individual phone service such a cable will accommodate 400 telephones, but with the limit of four telephones on a wire 1,600 instruments can be accommodated. Thus the downtown conduits have an ultimate capacity for 6,400 telephones and the others for 3,200.

At present, however, only one 300-pair wire cable is being used downtown, and a 150-pair wire cable extends from it. The other conduits are to be used in case a section of new cable is needed to replace a damaged one, or for new ones as the service increases. The present conduits are large enough to accommodate the increase of service for many years.

"SAVE THE STRAW," SAYS MAYES.

Six Things That Tend to Protect the Producer From Becoming a Buying Consumer.

"Save the Straw," is the message sent out by Jewell Mayes, secretary of the state board of agriculture, today to the farmers of Missouri. He reports that corn conditions are much improved, and says:

"It seems that hay has reached as high a figure at this period as it has sold for at this season for years, and there are those who are so aggressive as to predict that unless we have abundance of rains for fall pasture that within the next eight months the hay market may attack the record price. If so, this will be good for the farmer who follows the doubtful practice of selling hay.

"However, the farmer who raises or feeds live stock (and such an one is so often the best farmer) will hardly be found with much hay to sell, for in a short year along any line he will likely be found to be the buyer, except for a possible six reasons.

"The six reasons referred to as tending to protect the producer from becoming a consumer who buys feed are (1st) blue grass pasture, in which Missouri leads the world; (2nd) alfalfa growing, in which this state is beginning to take increased interest, and for which our department is planning to make an aggressive campaign; (3rd) the silo, needed on every farm handling live stock; (4th) millet, and other catch crops; (5th) saving of the wheat and oats straw; (6th) the sixth is a composite why—combining the 3rd and 5th reasons—the properly balanced feeding of corn silage and wheat straw, insuring a separate profit for both the corn and the grain where otherwise this year's grain crop might have figured a loss.

"If you have not threshed the grain crop, do not delay stacking. Stacking wheat extends the time of marketing, and is regarded by many as a wise way to hold grain for a limited time. Skilled stackers are not plentiful—and if you are in doubt use a tarpaulin or other covering for stacks. Do not thresh until the heating period is past. By stacking you guard against a probable (or possible) wet period.

"Will it not pay any and every farmer to save his straw? Stack it to turn water; some cover the top of straw stacks with hay or other material in case they cannot begin baling immediately. Running day and night in baling straw has often been found a good investment as insurance against a wet season. The cyclone stacker should not be wholly depended on to handle the straw—it will pay to put men on the straw stack to insure keeping the middle well filled.

"In this day of the ugliest and most to be encouraged farm implement—the manure spreader—all wheat, oats and rye straw should be saved for feed or bedding. Do not haul away or ship your straw, except as a last resort.

"There is one farmer, perhaps, who may merit advance forgiveness for selling his straw—the man who cashes his straw pile for money to buy ground limestone by the car to spread on his land where sweetening of soil is needed.

"Save the straw. Do not burn the stacks, for that is willful waste. Some are using the straw spreader with success. You can certainly feed your straw to positive profit, and if you care to sell it you will be able to get rid of it, especially if you are near the railroad. Let not the charge be ever again made against the Missouri farmer that he willfully wastes any portion of his crops."

SOX TAKE THIRD GAME 4-3.

Adams' Home Run With Two Men On Bases Couldn't Win For The Cubs.

The Sox defeated the Cubs in the third game of the series at the Normal school yesterday afternoon by a 4-3 score.

This is the second victory which the Sox have won, while the Cubs have defeated the Sox once. The game yesterday was the most closely contested one of the three. Its feature was Captain Adams' home run in the sixth inning, when two men were on bases.

Neither team scored in the first, two innings, but the Sox by opportune hitting got one score in the third. No scores were made in the fourth, but the Sox got one score in each of the fifth and the sixth innings. Adams then came to bat with two men on bases and lifted the ball clear over the railroad track, giving his side three scores, and tying the game 3-3. Two hits by Bird and Wogan in the seventh gave the Sox the winning score.

The next game will be played on Friday afternoon.

The game by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	R	H	E
Sox	0	0	1	0	1	1	1	4	5	6
Cubs	0	0	0	0	0	3	0	3	6	6

Good Crop.

The Hopkins Journal says threshing is now in full blast and wheat and oats are both running out better than many first expected, oats going from 30 to 60 bushels and wheat from 10 to 42 bushels to the acre. George Andrews threshed a ten acre patch of wheat last week that averaged 42 bushels. Corn is looking fine and altogether this country seems to be signally blessed this year with good crops.

Bond Issue for Hopkins.

J. L. JONES DEAD

RETIRED MINISTER CAME TO NODAWAY WHEN A BOY.

HAD BEEN ILL 2 YEAR

Was Pastor of Several Churches in Different Towns of the County—Leaves Many Relatives.

The Rev. J. L. Jones died last night at 9:30 at the family home, 625 West First street. Mr. Jones had been in failing health for the past two years, and since November had been confined to his bed. His malady caused him acute suffering, and the last two months he was in a precarious state, with no apparent hopes of recovery.

The funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the First Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Lewis M. Hale. The interment will be made in Miriam cemetery.

Mr. Jones was one of the best known men of the county and the son of Alfred Jones, one of the early pioneers of Nodaway. He was born in Buchanan county, Missouri, May 29, 1851.

When a very small boy he came with his parents to this county, and the family settled on a farm south of Maryville, in the White Cloud district. Mr. Jones spent his early life in farming, and later studied for the ministry, taking up an active pastorate in 1894. He was pastor at several of the district churches and then went to Texas, where he made his home for a time. He then returned to Nodaway and was pastor of the Hopkins Baptist church for two years, and then went to Clearmont, where he was pastor for several years. In 1909 he returned to his farm in White Cloud, living there until a few years ago, when he took up his residence in Maryville.

Mr. Jones was married March 9, 1871, to Miss Mary A. Toel, the daughter of the late Henry Toel of Maryville, who, with six children, survive. The children are Mrs. George Greeson of Graham, Oliver Jones of Long Beach, Cal.; Raymond and Alfred Jones, living south of the city; Loren Jones of Knowlton, Mont., and Miss Marie Jones, a member of the Maryville Conservatory faculty. He also leaves one brother, Will R. Jones of Warrensburg, Mo., and a sister, Mrs. John Busby of this city.

Among the out-of-town relatives of Mrs. Jones, who will be in Maryville to attend the funeral are her mother, Mrs. Margaret Toel of Des Moines, and her sister, Mrs. Sophia Jones of Enid, Okla., who came several weeks ago on account of the serious condition of Mr. Jones; Mr. and Mrs. George Toel of St. Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. George Lorance of Des Moines, Ia., and Henry Toel of Conception, who will arrive in Maryville Friday.

Indorsement of Candidacy of Judge James T. Blair by Members of The Nodaway County Bar.

The undersigned members of the Nodaway county bar, knowing of the eminent qualifications of Judge James T. Blair of our neighboring county of DeKalb, for the office of Judge of the Supreme Court, and believing that the northwest part of the state is entitled to representation in the Supreme Court, hereby indorse his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for that office.

Judge Blair is now serving and for three years past has served as a Commissioner with the Supreme Court, during which time he has written a great number of opinions. These give proof of his sound knowledge of the law and his familiarity with the practice and procedure of the court. The voters of this county will make no mistake in casting their votes for him and we respectfully commend him to their favorable consideration.

THE AUTOMOBILE'S INFLUENCE.

Nodaway's Large Number of Cars is Affecting Written Language, as May Be Seen From News Item.

Nodaway county has so many automobiles—the official count July 1 was 952, and probably would be more than 1,000 now—that the written language of the people is being affected by them. At least it would seem so from a news item sent in by one of our correspondents.

This correspondent is so used to writing about motoring parties, motor accidents and the purchase of new motors, that the idea of traveling in any other way seems strange, so he writes:

Abner and Lafe Watson motored to Elmo with their horse and buggy Saturday to attend the Chautauqua.

BROTHERHOOD MEETING.

Open-Air Affair, Followed by Barbecue Supper at Park.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Brotherhood of the First Christian church is to be held tomorrow night at Normal park. The crowd is to meet at the church at 6:30 o'clock, and free transportation will be furnished to the park. The following is the official bulletin of the evening:

A LITTLE FLING AT MARYVILLE.

How W. F. Bradley, Preacher, Stopped Sunday Baseball in Lock Springs, Mo.

This weeks Pattonsburg Call, in an editorial headed Sunday Baseball vs. Sunday School, tells of the novel and amusing way in which W. F. Bradley, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Lock Springs, Mo., went to work and succeeded in stopping Sunday baseball in that town. The editorial, which takes its little fling at Maryville, follows:

"Hello, Lock Springs? This is Maryville's captain talking; we would like a game with you next Sunday."

"Sorry, old chap, but Lock Springs doesn't play Sunday baseball now; some other day."

The amazement of Maryville's captain might not have been so great had he been acquainted with a certain young pastor, W. F. Bradley.

Bradley; now second-termer as Missouri's Quiet-Hour superintendent, got his theology at Missouri Valley College, where as a by-product of much service since, he has learned baseball.

Undoubtedly he was a sturdy player, and scored many hits for the glory of M. V. C.. No matter! There was one aspect of the great game which he did not learn until he left the campus and began to preach.

Then it was that baseball to Bradley, '06, was found to be much different to W. F. Bradley, Presbyterian pastor, who now saw the boys and young men flocking en masse on Sundays to the sunny ball diamond. No McCormick rake ever left more slender picking than was spared of men for the scanty Lord's Day worship. Baseball had become very real and difficult affairs to the young pastor. This new game required more headwork.

Now Rev. Mr. Bradley might have entered the sure retreat of the Sunday pulpit and preached and scolded blisteringly. What he did was to join the practice squad one day quite inadvertently. The fellows were not slow to respond to his unaffected comradeship, nor backward in appreciating the quality of his play. Before long he was reliance of the team! His pitching had made Lock Springs invincible.

Naturally, while the preacher seemed to enjoy the game immensely, the church session could hardly be asked to give him his Sundays off? So the team argued. Therefore the members, being good ballplayers, were good sportsmen, and, being that, they played fair with the pastor who proved himself the best man among them. Surely Mr. Bradley '06, never made a home run so worthy of record as this!

Needless to say, the change to the Saturday games has been only one result of the influence of the Christian leader upon the lives of the young men of his town. It is tribute to the effectual manliness of O'Dagent day clergy. Bradley is [illegible] Miller, Miss Al[illegible] whom Missouri Helen Waske, Mhery proud. SAVE THE WATER

MANAGER DENNY WANTS TO INSURE FUTURE CONDITIONS.

NO DANGER AT PRESENT

Today He Asked That Sprinkling of Court Yard and Streets Be Stopped.

Manager L. A. Denny of the city water company cautions the people of Maryville against the waste of water. There is no danger of the supply giving out, he says, but he thinks that if the waste of water can be kept down from now on it will be a great help later in the summer.

The reservoir is full of water and is being kept full, but in the last few days the river has gone down. Yesterday the pumps took it down nearly two feet. Mr. Denny attributes the condition of the river to the work of the dredge boat near Hopkins.

This morning he asked W. A. Townsend, janitor of the court house, to stop the sprinkling of the lawn. Much water has been used there this summer in the effort to keep the new sod alive and let it get a firm root. Although a good lawn is an important thing for the court house square, it may have to be sacrificed this year to the more important needs of water for drinking and cleansing purposes.

The people of the city can aid very materially in the saving of water by not sprinkling their lawns and gardens.

Mr. Denny also asked today that the sprinkling of the streets downtown be stopped.

Mrs. Cockayne Entertains Club.

The Herron Homemaking Circle enjoyed one of its pleasant meetings Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harvey Cockane, northwest of the city. Favorite receipts and quotations were given with roll call responses and the afternoon devoted to needlework. A luncheon of ices and cakes were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Cecile Porterfield, and Miss Esther Tebow. Those present were Mrs. Virgil Guthrie, Mrs. S. E. Fisher, Mrs. Nellie Manley, Mrs. L. E. Rogers, Mrs. Frank Dempsey, Mrs. I. E. Tebow, Mrs. W. R. Taylor, Mrs. J. C. F. Taylor, Mrs. Ed. Vulgamott, Mrs. E. Neidel, Miss Mary Taylor, Miss Sarah Taylor, Miss Esther Neidel, Miss Nellie Fisher and Miss Grace Fisher. The next meeting will be on August 4, at the home of Mrs. Frank Dempsey.

Mrs. Housel Hurt.

Mrs. David Housel was severely hurt this morning when she slipped and fell, dislocating her hip. Mrs. Housel was at the home of Mrs. Noah Sipes, attending a quilting when the accident occurred. She was at once taken to her home, on North Market street, and a physician summoned. She was resting very well this afternoon.

As a farewell courtesy to her guest Miss Ida Landon of Silver City, Ia., who returned to her home this morning, Miss Susie Young gave a dinner last night with plates laid for Miss Landon, Mrs. Elmer Young, Miss Dora Allen, Miss Ethel Kidd, Miss Cuba Thompson and Miss Nellie Thompson.

Mrs. August King of Clyde came Wednesday evening for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Gross. She will return to her home Saturday and will be accompanied by her daughter, Angela King, who was operated upon at St. Francis hospital two weeks ago.

1915 Buick

Valve-in-Head
Motor Cars

The Car of Power, Speed Dependability and Durability

THE vital factor that has built up such an enormous demand for Buick cars is the Valve-in-Head motor, together with the dependability and durability of construction, comfort and great fuel economy.

Last season the output of 33,200 cars was completely sold out early in March. This endorsement of the Buick by the buying public has justified us this season in increasing our output and lowering our prices.

At the same time the 1915 Buick models actually offer greatly increased value. This reduction of price is possible because of the volume of business, the improved factory methods and because of the specialized labor and knowledge of the experts in this great factory.

THE BUICK PLANT IS THE LARGEST AUTOMOBILE FACTORY IN THE WORLD and here practically all parts for the Buick cars are made. This means economy of manufacture, unified effort and centralized engineering supervision.

Every man, every machine, every brain is attending solely to the work of making Buick cars.

The 1915 Buick has all the fundamental Buick principles with the addition of every improvement that has stood the Buick tests of worth. In fact, the three chassis, while the same in all essentials as last year, have been improved in every particular where improvement was possible. Many important innovations this season are added to increase the value of the cars:

The new Delco system of starting, lighting and ignition with an increased generating capacity of 35 per cent and automatic spark advance.

Tungsten steel valves.

Carburetor supplied by Stewart-Warner gravity feed vacuum system.

Controls conveniently located on instrument board in the cowl.

Non-skid tires on rear wheels.

Improved quality of leather for the upholstering and finer finish.

High grade stream line bodies, hoods and oval radiators.

These are but a few of the Buick improvements that will convince the buyer that, regardless of price, we are giving more value than ever before. We always have and still guarantee the Buick Valve-in-Head motor to develop more power than any other type of automobile motor of equal size, American or foreign make.

UNION OF THIEF CATCHERS

Sheriffs, Special Agents and Chiefs of Police Plan Merger.

Lincoln, July 23.—A union of three big criminal catching agencies was evolved at the meeting of the International Order of Sheriffs. It proposes a working understanding and co-operation between the sheriffs of the United States and Canada, the International Association of Railroad Special Agents and the International Police Chiefs' association.

The object of the union is to bring about a better co-operation among all peace officers. With the sheriff watching the county, the police chief the city and the railroad special agents the railroads, under this system of co-operation, it ought to be almost impossible for a criminal to get away, said J. W. Connolly, president of the special agents' organization, who conceived the plan for federation.

Rev. W. B. Christy of this city, will preach next Sunday evening at Hopkins.

Man Who Shot Anderson Surrenders.

St. Louis, July 23.—Edward Koenig, who for four days had been sought by the local police in connection with the shooting of Felix E. Anderson, assistant to President W. S. McChesney of the Terminal Railroad association, surrendered to the police. Koenig admitted he had shot Anderson and said he did so because "they had conspired to ruin and kill me." Asked to define "they," he answered incoherently.

Women Get Out "Dry" Vote.

Kansas City, July 23.—As the result of a spirited local option election, Independence, Mo., a suburb, went dry by about 100 votes. Women "dry" workers took an active part, using buggies and motor cars to help get out the vote.

Fighting In St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—The strike situation in Russia took on a more serious aspect when armed conflicts occurred in the streets and resulted in the wounding of many police, Cossacks and strikers.
